

November 27, 2010

Welcome to winter, which seems to have come a few weeks early this year. Two great events are coming up on December 4 and January 29. As always, you can visit our Web site for more information about Friends of Badger Mountain.

If you're looking for holiday gifts that reflect an appropriate spirit for the holidays, come to the Alternative Gift Fair on Saturday December 4, from Noon to 4:00 PM at the Community Unitarian Universalist Church in Pasco. There will be music, a bake sale, and a wide variety of gifts that help support worthy organizations (like our own!). Click the poster to go to our Web site for more details and to read the poster.

Join Friends of Badger Mountain at our Annual Celebration on Saturday, January 29, 6:00 - 8:00 PM, at Goose Ridge Winery. We will have hors d'oeuvres, wine, news, and exciting announcements!

For further info and how to RSVP (if you plan to come), click this poster to go to the Activities page on our Web site.

Did you hear the news? The 100,000th user - just so far in 2010 - of the Badger Mountain trails was recorded on October 16. Wow! You can read about this news here. We also did a lot of maintenance and repairs on the trails this fall. You can read about that here.

Finally, thanks very much for helping us expand, improve, make more user-friendly, and in all ways take care of our beautiful Badger Mountain. If you have any questions, comments, or items for the next newsletter, please drop me an e-mail.

Sharon Grant
President, FoBM

You are receiving this newsletter because you are on the mailing list of Friends of Badger Mountain. Please do not reply to this automated message. Should you wish to change your e-mail address or remove it from our list, please drop a note to Sharon. We send out a newsletter four to six times a year; we will never give away or sell your information.
